

Nourishing facial creams:

Calendula cream

The cream moisturizes and softens the skin, helps when treating dermatitis, psoriasis, acne or otherwise damaged skin. Calendula cream removes toxins, tones and rejuvenates the skin. It is recommended for dry and mature skin.

Nut cream (with sheabutter)

Nut facial cream reduces wrinkles, deeply moisturizes and nourishes the skin, protects it from cold. The cream is recommended for daily care of dry skin, also is suitable for children. Nut cream protects face from frostbite in winter.

Buckthorn elixir

This oil blend nourishes, moisturizes and tones the skin. Buckthorn oil is rich in natural omega7 acids and beta-carotene, it enriches elixir with 6 types of vitamins, 22 fatty acids and other valuable minerals for skin. This cream is especially suitable for dry skin - protects against winter cold and in summer promotes nice tanning.

Anti-couperosis cream

Handmade cream consists of organic unrefined oils that enrich it with natural vitamins E and C, GLA acids. The cream restores skin's elasticity, delays the signs of aging, strengthens capillaries and reduces facial redness. It is suitable for all skin types.

Helichrysum eye balm

Only eye balm tones and softens the skin around the eyes, helichrysum oil prevent wrinkles and premature aging. Natural vegetable oils moisturize, soften and tighten the skin.

Lip balm

Natural lip balm of dark cocoa, mango butter or buckthorn oil gently nourishes, protects lips from harmful environmental factors, soothes them.

Matching facial cleansers, mists (hydrolats):

St. John's Wort water, rose water, moroccan chamomile water, cornflower water, geranium water.

Nourishing facial treatment